Carl McFarland was formally installed as president of the University by Gov. John W. Bonner in ceremonies in the Student Union auditorium Friday night.

Chester C. Davis, associate director of the Ford foundation, received the honorary degree of doctor of laws. Vice-president R. H. Jesse presented President McFarland.

Governor Bonner, in conferring power of office upon President McFarland, said he spoke for the state board of education in saying that "we feel very fortunate in finding so distinguished a man for president of the University."

President McFarland, in his remarks, said the entire faculty must share, indeed, they must carry most of the burden. Therefore, in accepting the commission of the state board of education, I have done so as one of the company of teachers and scholars who are gathered here.

We—the faculty—will strive to make a mark of higher education in the state.

SUMMER SESSION

BEGAN with the departure of spring quarter students to all parts of the state and the arrival of high school students, graduate students, and teachers on the campus for a summer of conferences, workshops, and advanced study. Twentieth Century-Fox shot scenes for the technicolor film, "Red Skies Over Montana," in which some students found time to become part-time actors and actresses.

DRAMATIC productions on the campus ranged from the Drama department's presentation of William Surayan's, "The Beautiful People," and a series of three one-act plays, to the Lockrem Johnson chamber opera, "A Letter to Emily." A scene from the modern opera shows George Peckham as "Edward Dickinson," and Alice Cave as "Emily."

HIGH SCHOOL Music and Journalism students had an opportunity this summer to study under educators from MSU and other parts of the country. Music students performed and studied at the two week session of the High School Music Camp.

JOURNALISM students attended the Publications Pow Wow, a two week session conducted by the School of Journalism. Not all of the time was spent in study and many of the high school students took time off to dance in the Gold Room of the Student Union.

THE NORTHERN Rocky Mountain Roundup of Regional Arts, under the direction of the late Joseph Kinsey Howard, offered again this summer a unique program aimed at cultural enrichment of life in the Northwest. A joint project of the University, Music School Foundation, Montana Institute of the Arts, and the Rockefeller Foundation, the Roundup was designed to provide, through an integrated series of lectures, workshops, seminars, recitals, demonstrations and professional performances in several fields, the stimulation, expert counsel and leadership training needed by anyone interested in intellectual or artistic achievement. The Writer's Conference, one phase of the Roundup, had as featured lecturers, two Pulitzer Prize winners. They were Bernard DeVoto, author of "Across the Wide Missouri," and A. B. Guthrie, Jr., author of the Pulitzer Prize novel of 1950, "The Way West." Other activities of the Roundup included a Symphony Workshop at which Eugene Andrie conducted the Rocky Mountain Symphony.

JOSEPH KINSEY HOWARD (1901-1951) spent most of his life writing about Montana. He is best known for his book Montana—High, Wide, and Handsome. In 1944, after spending twenty-one years on the staff of the Great Falls Leader, Howard resigned from his job as News Editor to become Research Associate for the Montana Study, a project of the Rockefeller Foundation and Montana State University. Until his death this summer, he was Director of the Northern Rocky Mountain Roundup of Regional Arts, sponsored by the University and the Rockefeller Foundation.

ORIENTATION WEEK

TESTS, book lines and general confusion greeted the newly-arrived freshmen. Student leaders and University administrators, to help the new students start a successful college career, gave talks explaining the various functions and activities on the campus. At the end of a hectic week the freshmen took a well-deserved rest by carrying on the annual ritual of whitewashing the "M" on Mount Sentinel.

AFTER spending many long hours standing in registration lines, weary freshmen and a few upperclassmen finally come to the weary checkers who complete one of the final phases in the registration process. Here all forms are checked for completeness and accuracy.

MARJORIE Rutherford, Sigma Phi Epsilon's Queen of Hearts, leaves the Mobile Chest X-Ray unit. The mobile unit is used at the men's meeting checks to see that all students are in good physical condition. (News Service Photo)

HIGHLIGHT OF HOMECOMING was the inauguration of Dr. Carl McFarland as President of Montana State University. The inaugural address was given by Chester C. Davis, an associate director of the Ford Foundation. Professor E. A. Atkinson directed inaugural functions which featured the installation exercises, a luncheon at the Florentine Gardens, and a reception in the Student Union Gold Room.

DR. R. H. JESSE, vice-president of MSU, presents Dr. McFarland to Governor Bonner for installation. After the departure of Dr. James A. McCoin to Kansas State, and up to the arrival of Dr. McFarland on the campus, Dr. Jesse served as acting president of the university.

UNDER the direction of Charles Luedke, 1951 Alumni chairman, featured the inauguration of Dr. Carl McFarland as President of Montana State University, a parade of colorful floats and queen candidates, and the crowning of Jo Mae Chase, New Hall, as the 1951 Homecoming Queen. Alumnus and students also witnessed a hard fought and battle between the Grizzlies and the victorious Vandals from the University of Idaho

THESE ARE THE GALS who represented the various living groups as Homecoming Queen candidates. Back row: Phyllis Treweek, Alpha Phi, Jo Mae Chase, New Hall, Dorothy Reed, Alpha Chi, Joan Selner, Delta Gamma, Arden Grandy, Synadelphic, and Mary McCullie, Kappa Alpha Theta. Front row: Valerie Anglin, Sigma Kappa, Kay Williams, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kathy Baeshenberg, Delta Delta Delta, and Virginia Harkins, North Hall.

ONE OF THE FEATURES at Homecoming is the barbecue where the alumni gather to greet old acquaintances before the afternoon football game. Dr. Joseph Kromer and crew supervise the barbecue operations.

GOVERNOR JOHN BONNER is one of the many alumni to return to the campus to take in the Homecoming activities. As an alumni function, Homecoming is growing in size and popularity.

THE FIRST SOS of the year brought the tapping of thirty sophomore men for the Bear Pows'. Burley Miller, Bear Pow adviser, named the new members who were chosen by inactive members on the basis of leadership, sportsmanship, activities, and school interest. The Bear Pows' handled the Homecoming Queen election and also ushered at the Grizzly games (with the aid of the Spurs).

MARJORIE RUTHERFORD, representing North Hall, showed surprise when she won the Sigma Phi Epsilon "Queen of Hearts" title from nine other candidates nominated by the women's living groups. Pat Swartz and Beverly Terpening were finalists.

FALL QUARTER was the scene of many house activities and other dances. The WAA, under the direction of Norma Bell, staged their annual barn dance in the Gold Room of the Student Union. The girl-ask-boy affair featured the music of the Blue Knights.

SPURS SOLD "DEAR LICENSES" to MSU Dairy Men which entitled them to drag their dates to the annual Sassy Hawkins dance. Grace Comeran "caught" Dewey Soring and took him to the affair which featured a mock wedding ceremony uniting Pat Danielson and "Kissing George" Ostrom as the most authentic Dog Patch couple.

THE KOREAN BLOOD shortage stimulated the student body to start a blood drive during the fall quarter. An attempt was made during spring quarter for MSU to claim the title of "bloodiest campus in the nation." Although the quotas were not reached the university placed in the top three category for the nation.

THE LAST EVENT of fall quarter is the impressive Christmas SOS. This tradition finds the faculty and student body singing on Main Hall steps beside the lighted Christmas tree.

THE WINTER QUARTER

HIGHLIGHTS THE SOCIAL activity on the MSU campus. During this quarter the Student Union Gold Room and the Men's Gym are transformed into ornate ballrooms. Those students who weren't too busy studying or skiing at Whitefish found time to attend most of the social gatherings and thus helped relieve the monotony of a long-drawn-out winter.

THE 12th ANNUAL NITE CLUB DANCE, produced by the School of Music, featured an original floor show, "Trial by Music". Most of the music for the show was composed by Gih Leifinger and David Swingle. Dennis Gibley was one of the music students who displayed their talents. She is shown here doing a western comedy routine for the Nite Club audience.

NITE CLUB DANCE

"TRIAL BY MUSIC" opened with a "trial" by six prom clothemen who arrested many of the dancers. Jim Cole, as the judge of the city hall, was given musical replies to "charges" by the group of defendants. Adding their contributions to the festivities were Tulsa Heath and Wayne Filders, guitarists, the Lancers, a cowgirl dance group, Betty Rumph, violinist, Bob Hoyer, and a formal dance by Carol Anderson and Johnny Thompson. The Jubileers presented an original composition by Gih Leifinger who accompanied the group on the piano.

ONE OF THE OUTSTANDING functions of the school year, the Forester's Ball is presented annually after many hours of planning and work. The Men's Gym is transformed into a forest paradise through the use of many fir trees and boughs. A two-night affair, the ball's main purpose is to raise money for the Forestry Club Student Loan Fund. Forestry students may borrow from this fund to further their education. Originally started by a group of Forest Rangers taking refresher courses on the campus, the ball has grown to its present size. Chief push at the 35th ball was Don Cullen, who also took first place in the beard-raising contest. The contest, one of the ball's added attractions, is a means of advertising the ball. Wes Morrison presents Don with the first prize award, an electric razor.

FORESTER'S BALL

KAM HUGHES, MARTHA SMITHERS, AND GLADYS MIDDLETON were part of the can-can dancing group which entertained the Foresters and guests.

LIQUID REFRESHMENTS of Coke and orange soft drinks were in the house. Bartenders John Airport, Dick Leicht, Mike Sullivan, Joe Luckman, Fred Pruessing, and Bob Jordan kept the drinks flowing during the Saturday evening proceedings.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE by the Foresters, the Law students presented their eighth annual Barrister's Ball in the Empress Room of the Palace Hotel. The semi-formal dance had a variety of entertainment furnished by the fraternity and sorority houses. This function is host to many of the Law School alumni and outstanding legal men throughout the state. Terry Keast and Mary Joyce Quinn were caught on the dance floor by the roving photographer.

BARRISTER'S BALL

TOM PAYNE acted as master of ceremonies and also gave a tribute to the Sigma Nu Quartet who was represented by one original member of the group, Arnie Huppert. DOROTHY ROSS sang a song explaining the reasons why she hated men. Judging by her expression it looks like she meant every word of the song. The Main Music provided music for dancing.

THE ROYALEERS, MSU square dance group, sponsored the Miss Photogenic contest and dance. Candidates were chosen from the campus living groups. Tickets purchased for the dance served as ballots for selecting Miss Photogenic. Bobbie Hanson was this year's winner and is shown here receiving a silver cup from Carl Wahlgenant, Royaleer president. Other finalists were: Back row—Nickie Scott, Marlene Cresein, Janet Bailey, Jane Guethke and Betty Rumph. Front row—Bobbie Hanson, Dorothy Reed, Janice Ludwig, Arlene Carpenter, and Jane Baker.

MISS PHOTOGENIC

MSU's VERSION of the New Orleans Mardi Gras, an annual pre-Lenten celebration, is sponsored by the Newman Club. Designed to let the students have one last fling, the Mardi Gras offered dancing by Pop the Cat and his orchestra, and living group concessions in the Gold and Copper rooms of the Student Union. Appearing again on the social scene is Dorothy Ross, who acted as one of the barkers at the Kappa Kappa Gamma freak tent. Beth O'Hanlon and Bob Fosse were voted Mardi Gras Queen and King by a majority vote of the students.

MARDI GRAS

BOB FOSSE AND BETH O'HANLON look pleased during the crowning ceremonies where they became this year's King and Queen. NAN BARNEY and MARILYN NICHOL endured being hit by sponges at the Theta booth.

THE SCABBARD AND BLADE and Spinner Corps put their heads together and came up with the Military Ball. A formal dance was held in the Governor's and Mayfair rooms at the Hotel Florence. Intermission entertainment featured the Pershing Rifle drill team, songs by the Ink Bots, Three Theta's, Betty Rae Wolfe, Rosemary Anderson, and Mary Mauer. A dance number by Marjorie Rutherford and Nancy Dahl was also featured. Bill Brent and Joyce Frigaard, Cadet Colonel of the Spinner Corps, exchange a few words during the intermission.

MILITARY BALL

SITTING OUT a dance we find Maria Scarpatti, George Shrum, Carl Johnson, and Judy Mead. Attention seems to be focused on Maria. MARILYN KITNER and Everett Smith evidently found the evening a happy one.

WILLIAM ALLEN, President of the Boeing Aircraft Company of Seattle, and a graduate of the university, spoke at Charter Day convocation.

DR. MURIEL R. LORAN of the School of Pharmacy was presented with a $11,300 check from the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund for Cancer Research. The grant is being used for further study in tumor research.

THE UNIVERSITY'S building program was started with the groundbreaking of the new $100,000 School of Music building. The first shovel of earth was turned by Mrs. Florence Smith, widow of Dallas Smith, first dean of the school.

SPRING QUARTER

FOUND OTHER CAMPUSES throughout the nation indulging in riots and "panty raids." MSU did not follow through with any such behavior. The "M" was blown up and ballot boxes stuffed, but otherwise the quarter was as normal as past spring seasons.

A SOUTH SEA PARADISE was the theme of the Aquamaid Pageant staged in the University pool. Centered around a Hawaiian motif, the pageant told about five sailors who landed on an island and are entertained by the natives. The pageant ran for four nights and featured Aquamaids as birds of paradise, native maidens, chattering monkeys, warriors, purpoises and princesses. The pageant was written and directed by members of the Aquamaids. Ellen Polk, Betty Barber, and Sue Kuehn were the chattering monkeys.

THE COSTUMES used in the pageant and the scenery were also produced by the Aquamaid group. Jane Hahn was in charge of the set decoration. Pictures depicting the scenes of each of the pageants were painted on the walls of the pool.

AQUAMAID PAGEANT

ABER DAY

THIS YEAR was attended by a smaller gathering of people than in previous years. Bob Cooney, by sheer luck, picked a sunny day between two days of rain. Premature starts and a prolonged waiting period took some of the life out of this year's cleanup

ABER DAY MORNING found the students and faculty armed with rakes, brooms, and shovels for the annual campus clean-up. The M Club as usual directed activities and decorated the luckless Co-eds with lip-stick, a penalty for appearing on the campus wearing makeup. Noontime came and the students ate a lunch of hot dogs and ice cream. Don Orlich and Dick Monnow indulge in a feast in preparation for the afternoon activities. Don, looking quite clean here, entered the grease-pole climb, flour-money hunt, and the pie-eating contest. He ended up quite a mess at the end of the day.

BOB LAMLEY introduced "Mank" DeJarnette to the High Court audience. "Mank" has been the Aber Day barbeque chef for a number of years. In recognition of his services, he was awarded a plaque. High Court offered the traditional tub-dunkings and other antics. Off color dialogue, in excess, overshadowed any humor and made High Court a distasteful affair.

TRACK MEET

BROUGHT TO THE CAMPUS High school students from all parts of the state to compete in speech sports, and dramatics. University students took a break from the classroom routine to take in the various events or to finish up any late pieces of schoolwork. It was the high school students' day, and they took over the campus.

IT WAS A BAD DAY for Sem-timed photographers. Banned from the field, they had to shoot whatever was at hand. The tennis courts provided a few action pictures, and the house decorations provided a few more. Here we ran into trouble again. Negatives of the winning houses were so bad we could not make decent prints, so we had to settle for the shots used on these pages.

MISS MONTANA PAGEANT

BROUGHT TO THE CLIMAX many months of preparation and planning and the appearance of the Miss Montana candidates. The candidates, from the university and Eastern College of Education, spent two days undergoing interviews and displaying their charms and talents. Karen Whittet was selected to be 1952's Miss Montana.

NAME BANDS

APPEARED ON THE CAMPUS in concert and dance engagements. Ray Anthony and his orchestra appeared during the early part of the school year. Duke Ellington and orchestra played a short concert and dance during the spring quarter.

THE TAU KAPPA ALPHA Northwest Speech Tournament was held on MSU's campus this spring with the local TKA chapter acting as hosts. Ralph Y. McGinnis, director of speech activities on the campus, posts debate schedules and winners of the various events in the tournament.

MEMBERS OF THE DEBATE and Oratory group on the campus have participated in debate, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and oral interpretation of literature in speech tournaments in various parts of the country. Back row (L-R) Unidentified, George Ostrom, Bob Jones, unidentified, Bill Rice, Fred Waeppel, Tom Van Meter, Marshall Shields, Jim Johnson, Lorne Justus, and Nancy Williams. Front row: Dean Johnson, Rosanna Warren, Ralph Y. McGinnis, Joan Gibson, Tom Payne, Olin Cole, Mary Booth, and Dan Cameron.

THE UNIVERSITY was also host to the Montana State Solo and Small Ensemble Music Festival. Fifty-six Montana high schools sent students who did solo work in band and orchestra instruments, piano, voice, and baton twirling. The students also had an opportunity to play in the all-state orchestra and bands, under the direction of Eugene Andre and Justin Goss. A similar all-state chorus was directed by Lloyd Oakland.

GRADUATION DAY

BROUGHT TO AN END four years of study and life on the MSU campus for approximately four hundred senior students. Many friends and relatives attended the commencement exercises and heard an address by Albert N. Whitlock, a former dean of the law school. Two honorary doctorate degrees were presented to William L. Murphy of Missoula and William J. Jameson of Billings.

THE WEATHER for the 1952 commencement turned out sunny, bright, and hot. This was a contrast over previous rainy commencement days. Also changed slightly was the route of the Senior march from Main Hall. The new Humanities building excavations brought to a temporary end the march through Aber grove.

GROUNDBREAKING and excavations were an integral part of the school year. The first building started was the Music School building which was soon followed by the Men's Dormitory. The Humanities building excavation and the groundbreaking for the Women's Center building ended the spring quarter building program. Future plans include a new Student Union building and an Athletic Fieldhouse. Returning alumni and students in the future will find many changes in the appearance of the university campus.

Mr. Horace Dwyer.

DR. CARL SAFFARLAND
President Montana State University

DR. RICHARD H. JESS
Vice-President

GORDON B. CASTLE is the Sr. Academic Dean and also Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He is the co-ordinator of all Academic offerings in the University and is closely associated with the Registrar in keeping the students' curricula straight.

HERBERT J. WUNDERLICH, Dean of Students (and unofficial "Dean of Men"). Dean Wunderlich helps the students resolve their problems and develop their talents and potentialities outside of the classroom.

MAURINE CLOW, Associate Dean of Students. Miss Clow's big job is assisting students in co-ordinating their curricular and extra-curricular activities. Her aim is to help oil students attain maximum achievement.

LEO SMITH, Registrar. Mr. Smith's job is mainly admissions, both freshmen and transfers, registration, records and graduation. He takes time out every year to travel around the state talking to graduating classes about MSU.

J. B. SPEER, Controller. Mr. Speer is the chief fiscal officer of the University. He receives all the cash and all disbursements must go through his office.

E. KIRK BADGELY, Auditor of the University. He also helps with the student budget.

E. A. ATKINSON, Director of Summer School. Professor Atkinson is the coordinator of all summer session courses and the budget for the session.

A. C. COGSWELL, Director of Public Relations. His big job is University and student publicity. Andy also serves as Alumni secretary.

KATHLEEN CAMPBELL, Librarian. Miss Campbell keeps the Library operating efficiently and also manages to help anybody having trouble locating material.

TOM SWEARINGEN, Maintenance Engineer. Mr. Swearingen sees to it that the University grounds are up to par all year around and things running smoothly.

KERMIT E. SEVERSON, Director of the Counseling Center. The main function of this service is to help students in selecting educational and vocational objectives and to meet problems of personal adjustment. Open throughout the entire year, its services are available to anyone desiring assistance.

DR. M. P. WRIGHT, Director of the Health Service. The University Student Health Service is maintained in order to safeguard the health of the Students. Examination of all entering students, immunization for spotted fever, and dispensary service are stressed.

PAUL CHUMRAU, Director of the Placement Bureau. The Placement Bureau assists graduates, who desire help, in finding a job and also maintains a "follow-up" service to retain contact with them. Two other functions of this office are teacher placement and undergraduate employment.

CYRILE VAN DUSER, Manager of the Student Union. Cyrile has the job of co-ordinating the many meetings, social events and offices of the Student Union.

S. KENDRICK CLARK, Manager of Resident Halls. Mr. Clark takes care of housing student, finance and accounting.

ROBERT W. BREEN, Director of Family Housing. The Family Housing Units constitute temporary facilities available to married students and their families. A community center has been established providing recreational facilities and a play school operated in conjunction.

parts of the state,
nation, and world.

SENIORS: Secretary Bev Anderson, vice-president Doris Luckman, president Bob Smith, and Pat Danielson, treasurer.

SOPHOMORES: Vice-president Dorothy Reeves, president Bob Burke, and Jerry Holland, treasurer.

JUNIORS: Treasurer Judy Larkin, vice-president Ward Shanahan, president Caryl Wickes, and Bev Henne, secretary.

FRESHMEN: Treasurer Carlene Dragstedt, president Ken Duffy, and Nancy Dahl, vice-president.

CLASS OFFICERS

ACTING ON INFORMATION from students concerning adverse conditions around campus, this group of the various class officers takes the gripe to their cause in hopes of bettering the situation. This board's job is a hard one as the gripes range from the elimination of finals for seniors to remodeling the canteen. They form a strong student group that tries to give voice to the indignant.

BUD Rafter carrying the ball for WSC at Pullman, Washington. MSU was there too.

Besides learning about U. S. newspapering, the German students observed U. S. customs and community life when they traveled extensively during Christmas vacation. Barchet and Krocht went to the California coast. Ensling got as far as Mexico and visited Hollywood where he interviewed Charlie Chaplin. Schubert visited St. Louis and New Orleans, while Klauer spent some time in Lewistown, Kansas City and Denver where he watched the State Legislature in action. Steppat and Reinhold stayed in Montana to edit a small-town paper but found time to see the sights. Thelen spent his vacation in Chicago.

All of the students kept their home town papers posted on their impressions of America and some of the students lived up the Kalamin with letters to the editor. Taking an exceptionally active part on the campus was Alf Ensling, who wrote editorials and reviews of music school presentations.

JUST ONE SECOND PLEASE

THIS IS THE LAST TIME we of the SENTINEL will request any favors of you. Acknowledgments are in order to those who helped in the production of the book. The 1952 SENTINEL is the result of hours of work by many persons who officially and unofficially were part of the staff. The whole-hearted co-operation of the student body and faculty contributed greatly to the production of the book.

CREDIT IS DUE to the following for their interest and assistance. Bill Remington, Frank Cross, and the staff of the Reporter Printing & Supply Company at Billings combined their talents to print and bind the book. Bill drew up the shortest and easiest reading contract (see line print) while Frank battled with the typography and page layouts produced by the staff. Al Solisburg, Howard Vining and the staff of the Aircraft Engraving and Electrotype Company of Seattle gave much needed advice and produced the engravings used in the book. The Kingscraft Cover Company of Chicago took some wild ideas passed on by the Editor and turned out an economical and good looking cover.

THE SENTINEL PHOTOGRAPHERS could not produce all of the pictures used in the book so we relied upon the services of the Caplin Studio and Herb Titter of Great Falls. The pictures of Linda Oakland, the A cappella choir, Miss Photogenic candidates, and Queen Section were furnished by the Caplin Studio. The picture of Joseph Kinsey Howard was furnished by Herb Titter.

CREDIT MUST BE GIVEN to the staff members and those people who accidently walked into the office and were "drafted" to do any one of the many little jobs necessary in yearbook production.

AND LASTLY, the ewingmorphosis which took place in the SENTINEL office during winter and spring quarter aided greatly the moral of a hard-pressed staff. The Maintenance Department, upon the approval of the Student Union Executive Board, came in and tore out a wall thus changing a cubbyhole into a full-scale office.

THUS WE PRESENT to you a record of the school year as accurately and pleasantly as humanly possible.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS MSU

ASMSU PRESIDENT Bill "Doc" Reynolds and Business Manager Harvey Schlieman maneuvered the student body into an activity-filled year despite the limitations of inflation. Heading Central Board and the Athletic Board, Reynolds diplomatically kept peace between the athletic and cultural factions of the University. He began a revision of the constitutional offices and duties to promote greater contact between Central Board and the students and their organizations. Bear Paw was only the first honorary in Reynolds' college career which included Silent Sentinel and Kappa Tau. As a pre-med graduate, this Sigma Chi is planning to go on to the University of Washington School of Medicine. Schlieman, though he had to watch and count the pennies of the $18,000 ASMSU budget closely, underwrote two home bonds and the all school opera. Also a former Bear Paw, Schlieman is a law major and a member of Sigma Nu social fraternity. Both Schlieman and Reynolds are members of the Air Force ROTC brass.

AUDREY OLSON THORSRUD and her committee tried to assist everyone in arranging the social calendar and saw to the details of scheduling the two home bonds, Roy Anderson and Duke Ellington. This Delta Gamma and former Sigma served as president of Theta Sigma Phi. During Christmas vacation she found time to be married.

DONNA PERSONS, elected secretary during fall quarter to fill the vacant office, kept records up to date and posted them on the main floor of the Union. She is a member of Theta Sigma Phi, was editor of the 1951 Sentinel, and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta social society.

CENTRAL BOARD: Seated: Clara Sexton, Donna Persons, Bill Jones, Jack Cappridge, Bill McMaster, Edwin Briggs, Bill Reynolds, Audrey Thorsrud, Juanita Kugler. Standing: Bob Fowler, Edie Nelson, Harvey Schlemmer, and Dick Wahlstrom.

OUTSIDE ENTERTAINMENT committee, Monroe DeJarnette, Chairman; Anne Fowler, Lane Justus (not pictured), promoted the Community concerts.

A BIGGER AND BETTER M BOOK edited by Danny Lambros, Chairman; Dave Leuthold, Jamie Brennan and Skulasan Mae, was an extensive guide to freshman and organization heads.

ASMSU COMMITTEES

SOCIAL COMMITTEE, Back: Jerry Tucker, Ray Hoffman, Front: Judy Larkin, Chairman; Audrey Thorsrud and Nancy Calvert arranged the named and concerts and dances and social calendar.

CONVOCATIONS COMMITTEE, Back: Robert Struckman, John Lester, Gene Tidball, Steve Tenner, Faculty Chairman E. L. Freeman, Front: Kay Millions, Student Chairman; Annemarie Beatty, Jewel Beck scheduled Homecoming, Charter Day, Music School and Awards Day convos besides getting outside speakers who gave us the lowdown on everything from atomic energy to how to fly a balloon.

TRADITIONS BOARD, Front: Marilyn Foster, chairman; Don Lucas, Pat Lively; Back: Gene Hoyt, Bill Jamison and Bill McMasters sponsored Singing-on-the-Steps, homecoming parade, Aber day, and the sung test during basketball season.

ATHLETIC BOARD, Back: Dick Shadron, Al Manuel, Harvey Schlieman. Front: Donna Persons, Kirk Badgley, Burly Miller, chairman Bill Reynolds, Clyde Hubbard and Joe Brennan budgeted the funds for MSU athletics.

BUDGET AND FINANCE Committee, Back: Kirk Badgley, John Burke, Dirk Linsen, Herbert Wunderlich. Front: chairman Harvey Schlieman, Marilyn Schuch, and Bryce Breitenstein wrestled with the inflation in appropriating student funds.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD, Back: Edward Dugan, Bob Lindberg, Dick Wahlgenant, Cyrille Van Duser. Front: Jim Reid, Eileen Polk, chairman Juanita Kupler, Tom Ammons and Tom Anderson chose editors for campus publications and saw that they did their job.

PRESIDENT CLARA SEXTON, an Alpha Chi Omega who spent her time serving MSU women, belonged to Women's M club and Phi Chi Theta, women's business honorary. Her past experience as a Panhel officer and as rush chairman and first vice president of her house, gave her the know-how in organization procedure.

VICE-PRESIDENT MARLENE CARRIG, former Spur, served as a junior sponsor in North Hall. She was pledge trainer for her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

SECRETARY ANNE FOWLER, honored as the most outstanding sophomore by Theta Sigma Phi, kept up the AWS correspondence and minutes besides attending to her duties in Spurs, the Student Religious council, and on the outside entertainment committee.

TREASURER PATRICIA LOVELY, former "Spur of the Moment" and an AWS member for three years, budgeted for office supplies, the counselee-counselor program, lantern parade, and delegates to national and regional conferences. She served as a junior sponsor, and as treasurer in Math Club.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS made up of officers and representatives from the women's living groups and clubs works closely with the dean's office in regulatory matters and conducts an orientation program for freshman women. Their biggest project, the supervision of the Miss Montana program, is aimed at campus-wide benefit and participation. Back: Marilyn Nichol, Mary Riley, Bev Johnson, Helen Duncan, Joan Watson, Janet Harper, Betty Smith, Peggy Clapp, Dorothy Reeves, Mary Ann Dimack, Aurelia McMenamney, Ruth Neptune. Front: Barbara Schunk, Lois Jean Baker, Anne Fowler, Clara Sexton, Marlene Carrig, Pat Lovely, Jary Nelson and Jo Ann Pings.

MISS MONTANA COMMITTEE — Sister Marian Kintner, Betty Roe Wolfe, Evelyn Rose, Beverly Hanne, and Jeanne Grandstrom. Standing, Susan Travis, Tom Ambrose, Donny Lamore, Bob Smith, and Barbara Schunk selected judges, scheduled and handled rehearsals for contestants, scholarships and the big Corvair ball. Judges who were chosen had to be un-biased persons who considered the contestants for appearance and grace in an evening gown, in a bathing suit, and for talent. In rehearsals contestants practiced sitting and walking gracefully and social manner. Finalists are awarded scholarships contributed by Montana firms and the Corvair ball is the first fund raising event to send the new Miss Montana to Atlantic City in style.

MISS MONTANA CANDIDATES parade for judges and the audience before displaying their talents in the pageant. From left to right they are: Jeanne Couture who sang on and from the opera, "La Boheme." Beverly Anderson who played a piano selection, Miss Montana, Karen Whitter, who performed at the organ and piano, and Bobbie Hanson who gave a movie showing her work in clothes designing. Miss Whitter, Livingston, who won the Miss Montana title was a junior majoring in music and a member Kappa Kappa Gamma.

MISS MONTANA FINALISTS — These five made it to the Miss Montana her keenest competition. Right to left is freshman busied major, Virginia Harkins, a Delta Gamma from Butte who displayed her talent at the piano. Freshman music major, Dorris Haines, an independent from Missoula presented a vocal solo and a piano selection. Freshman busied major, Bobbie Hanson, a Kappa Kappa Gamma from Glasgow showed a movie which described her work in clothes designing. Junior music major Jeanne Couture, an independent from Arlee sang on and from the opera, "La Boheme." Freshman music major, Santa Huest, an independent from Glendive performed at the piano and on the violin in the pageant. Each received a $5 dollar scholarship.

STUDENT UNION

STUDENT UNION, meeting place of clubs, students with leisure time, faculty and couples looking for a quiet spot. Noise, books and coffee give the Union its atmosphere but the Student Union executive committee thought there should be more. They toured the building and came out with plans for a hobby shop, paint and lights for the display cabinets, installation of a $35,000 gift pipe organ, and a movie program.

In the evening the Gold Room was the most often used spot on campus with square dancing classes on Tuesday and Thursday, and Pershing Rifles and Sponsor Corps practice marching. Sometimes, for one of the big social events of the year, the big room was transformed into everything from a Dogpatch town to a night club or a Mardi Gras carnival.

BOOK STORE sold books, papers, supplies and trinkets to students who always said they could buy things cheaper elsewhere. Still the book store is the hardest place to sleep when you need that almost forgotten birthday card or feel the urge to read a passionate novel. L. to R. Director Don Ritter, Glen Morask, Gene Carlson, Betty Liza Nelson, Joan Arnold, John Tibisto.

COKE STORE allows students to congregate in a friendly but crowded atmosphere to discuss classes, clubs, last Saturday's party, and each other. Though coffee went up from 5 to 8 cents, students drank as much as before. L. to R. Mrs. Verna Rice, Mrs. Margaret Plumb, Jim Fuhwiler, Helen Aune, Mrs. Sana Houston, Harold Maus, Roger Marshall, Cafe manager Jack Cuthbert, Leon Connor.

NIGHT CLERKS, Back: Emmet Haynes, SU Director Clyde Van Duser, Emmet Waizer. Front: Anthony Kest, Charles Wilson helped keep the Union in order and allowed students the use of the Union at night.

STUDENT UNION EXECUTIVE BOARD. Front: Jayne Rodigan, Cyrile Van Duser. Student chairman Jack Thomas, Maurine Clow, Barbara Jenkins. Back: Don Seese, Warren Little, Chairman Herbert Wunderlich, Edward Dugan, Vincent Wilson, Dick Biggerstaff, with the nod from President McFarland started a film program, a ceramics shop, installed at $35,000 gift pipe organ and wanted a SU fee raise to provide more SU activities.

STORE BOARD. Front: George Harpole, Bob Lamley, President Joan Arnold, Doug Kuster. Back: Morris McClintock, J. W. Severy, Paul Brischolff, Don Kitter, Kirk Badgley, Jack Cuthbert, governing body of the Associated Students' Store which includes the fountain, cafeteria and the book store, decided to make space to serve more people and to brighten up the cafeteria with paint.

PUBLICATIONS

DICK WOHLGENANT AND PAT GRAHAM KEPT THE KAIMIN READABLE AND FINANCIALLY SOUND.

THE MONTANA KAIMIN

KAIMIN kept the students informed of campus affairs despite low enrollment in reporting classes. Editors, reporters and copyreaders spent four days a week tense and annoyed with one another but managed to relax Thursday night or Friday afternoon with a game of cards.

EDITOR WOHLGENANT, calm and cool in his responsibility as staff director and boss, lashed periodically in the editorial page, particularly when he blasted frat Hell Weeks, Store board, press restrictions and Senator McCarthy. An expose of sexles in the State Industrial School was reviewed in the Great Falls Tribune. He received more mail than his predecessors and innvated a sixteen-page Future edition of the Kaimin. A member of Silent Sentinel, Sigma Delta Chi, Dregs, Publications board, and Sigma Nu fraternity, this former Bear Paw managed to keep in touch with all parts of the campus.

BUSINESS MANAGER GRAHAM kept the Kaimin operating in the black by cracking the whip over ad mess reviews. Phi Deltis claim him as a brother as do the Sigma Delta Chis. He was a former Bear Paw. Joy East, one year removed from the University of Idaho, came up through the ranks to take over for the next term.

EDWARD DUGAN, Kaimin adviser, lamented the number of queen candidate pictures and the lack of world and national news in the Kaimin. Serving the University as a member of Publications board, the Forum committee and the Student Union executive committee, Dugan also did the journalism school proud by bowling 200 point games in the faculty bowling tournament.

TOM AMBROSE, campus editor, assigned beats to reporters and missed little himself concerning MSU. An independent, he edited the Lewistown paper Spring quarter, Kappa Tau, Silent Sentinel and Sigma Delta Chi proved his honorary worthiness.

JEWEL BECK, feature editor, kept busy arguing with Wohlgenant on newspaper technicalities and sparkling about the Kaimin office with much efficiency and pep. This gal was also on Mortar Board, a Theta Sig, and president of Alpha Chi Omega.

LEW KEIM followed the Grizzlies through thick and thin as sports editor. His "Grizzly Gab" presented behind the scenes news to sports enthusiasts. A Sigma Nu member of Sigma Delta Chi and on Convo Committee, he succeeded to the Kaimin editorship following Wohlgenant's reign.

BILL JONES, photo editor, a Sigma Nu, Bear Paw, and sophomore delegate to Central board, smartly brightened the Kaimin with his picture ideas. The type that gives more than is required in whatever he undertakes, he graduated to the position of Kaimin feature editor for '52-'53.

DICK SMITH, copy editor, assigned desk hours and worked with copy readers catching reporter's errors. Sigma Chi house manager's job demanded the majority of his outside time.

TED HEWETT, photographer, supplied both Kaimin and the news service with plenty of printable pictures. During winter quarter he began shooting colored movies about the campus which will be made into a "year-on-the-campus" travelogue. It will be shown in schools throughout the state.

A DECISIVE MOMENT in the Kaimin office around the copy desk where most last minute decisions are made. Looking on is music reviewer and critic, Alf Easting, while cadet Tom Ambrose, associate editor, gives some almost professional advice on journalistic technicalities to new copy editor, Betty Smith and photo editor, Ted Hewett. Meanwhile copyreader Henry Pratt discusses with a "source" a doubtful piece of reporter's copy.

1952 SENTINEL

BOB LINDBORG, whip of the Sentinel, saw that the staff met their deadlines, something almost unheard of in yearbook production. He did the major part of the Sentinel planning, and proved himself an interior decorator in the office.

DOUG ANDERSON took the business manager reins in February when Brice Toole resigned. He kept books and moved in with the rest of the staff from the secluded office on the third floor of the auditorium.

PETER HOINESS, advertising manager, headed a staff of hardworking freshmen, sophomores, and Sigma Chi who brought in the revenue.

GENE HOYT, in charge of clubs and organizations, frat and sports sections, worked closely with Sentinel photographers. The grueling job of identification and copy writing were his problems, yet he found time to teach the office staff the tango.

HELEN LENHART learned how a yearbook goes together, worked on the publications, student administration, drama, music and freshman class sections. Her contribution to office "entertainment" was practicing a violin, and trying to keep out of the way of certain associate editors during their more amorous moments.

JERRY MURPHY, replacing former associate editor Barbara Pence, doubled as sports editor and took over the senior class section. In his free moments he taught French to the Sentinel office girls. His phrase, "Vous le vous..." became an essential part of the Sentinel staff's vocabulary.

CYRILE VAN DUSER, Sentinel adviser, kept track of Sentinel progress but let the staff learn by doing with less than a gentle shove.

PHOTOGRAPHERS, Wilfred Ellis, Ted Howell, and Sheldon Allen, saw the most exciting social functions, athletic games, campus festivals. University wheels and gears through a camera lens and tried to record it all for posterity.

BILL OLIVER, Margery Ford, and Tom Farrington, diligent and dependable staff members did everything from indexing names to drawing dummy sheets. Valuable material for next year's staff, they quickly learned new duties.

BEY HENNE, Beth O'Hanlon, and Carol Wetzstein, Sentinel glamour girls, assumed responsibility for writing clips and arranging the society and fraternity sections.

LEONA FACINCANI, Rowena Day and Elsie McLean hoped collected and quoted quotes for the caps written by the editors and other helpers.

AD CHASERS, some of the most necessary persons on a yearbook who get the least gratitude and appreciation from other students or advertisers. These hard workers are:

Back: Jack Sweeter, Jack Luzzoni, Matt Burgess, Ed Overhart, Peter Hansen, Brother Cushman, Bill May, Victor, Steve Sanders. Front: Nan Hubbard, Joan Brooks, Pearl Opoka, Mary Colvert, Pat Thomas, Mildred Mendel.

IN ACTION, Phi Delta Jerry Murphy and Kappa Alpha Theta Bev Henne (also a Kani) put their copy into shape (Bev on the sorority section and Jerry on sports) on time for deadlines. Both are associate editors for the '53 Sentinel.

NEW BUSINESS manager for '53, Sigma Chi Pete Heinss and new '53 associate editor Pat Thomas, an independent who came up from the ranks of the '52 ad staff, leave out on a nice spring day.

BARBARA PENCE, Kappa Kappa Gamma, served as an associate editor during fall quarter of '51 before spending some time in Hawaii.

KAY HUDSON, pretty newcomer (and a born Kani) imported by Jerry Murphy from South Dakota, began to learn the Sentinel ropes on the living groups sections.

SANDRA WALKER, Delta Delta Delta freshman majoring in sociology, pinch-hit as a Sentinel typist during the tight winter-spring schedule.

GENE HOYT and Jerry Murphy in an easy moment watched the photographer take their picture. Sigma Phi Epsilon Hoyt was the leading organizer of Dregs and Kani while devoting some time to the World Student Service Fund and the Red Cross. During spring quarter he worked toward his master's degree in anthropology.

FRONT: Art Hinzweiling, Faculty Adviser Paul Bruns, Editor J. Meuchel, Ralph Herzhberger

FORESTRY KAIMIN

YEARBOOK OF THE FORESTRY SCHOOL, includes reports of forestry activities, semi-technical and technical articles, a senior section, and an annual roster that dates back to 1903. First published as the forestry edition of the Montana Kaimin in 1919, the Forestry Kaimin has grown into a semi-professional yearbook that is published for forestry students, alumni, an extensive exchange list, and other interested readers. Material for the book is contributed by forestry students. Besides the editorial staff, Dave Luskman, Dick Leight and Clyde Black put in long hours on the yearbook. Dave Owen drew pictures.

PUBLIC SERVICE DIVISION, headed by Andy Cogswell, is the administrator of off-campus activities of MSU, such as correspondence school, extension service, adult education, alumni office and news service.

BERT HANSEN, community consultant, aids with surveys that enable communities to look at themselves objectively with an eye toward improvement. He also directs community pageants during the summer.

MARY MARGARET COURTNEY is secretary in the correspondence study division.

BILL SPAHR PLANS transcriptions and tape recordings which are played on the Montana radio stations. Pushing University enterprises through radio is his main job.

PUBLIC SERVICE DIVISION

DONNA HERRINGTON, news assistant to Martell, sent out stories to newspapers and took pictures of special events on campus.

EARL MARTELL writes and edits official University publications such as the Alumni News Bulletin, school catalogs, and summer session bulletins. Getting photographs of campus scenes and events is also an essential part of his job.

DRAMA

Lindborg

DRAMA DEPARTMENT

DAVID WEISS, instructor in drama, replaced Abe Willick who was on a leave of absence this year. Weiss who received his MA from the University of Wisconsin last year, specializes in lighting and design. Before coming here he worked with professional summer stock for three years and with a road show for a season. The sets for all three Masquer shows and for La Boheme for which all new flats were built, were designed by him. Weiss also directed the play, "Harvey."

LEROY HINZE, drama professor, directed the "Mad woman of Chaillet," "Macbeth," and "La Boheme" with a cast of 70 persons. "Alice in Wonderland" and the "Barber of Seville" are a couple of his best remembered productions in the five years that he has been here. Hinze received his BA at the University of Wisconsin, his MA at Cornell, and he is going to the University of Illinois to work on his Ph.D. next year. He has been a member of the Board of Directors of Community Theater since it was organized in 1951 and he organized the foreign film program in 1949. He has also organized several community theaters throughout the state.

Below Hinze lectures the almost completely inexperienced opera cast about stage movement.

MADWOMAN OF CHAILLOT

WELL ATTENDED by the student body in spite of the unadmitted admission charge, the first production of the year, "Madwoman of Chailot," was entertaining and thought provoking. This Musgrave production told the story of a madwoman who wanted to make all phases of life beautiful by destroying the evil factors in the world. This was accomplished by the extreme devices of the four madwomen. Jack Shapiro did an outstanding portrayal of the Ragpicker who finds beauty and goodness in his own simple life. Above he tells the madwomen, Mary Martin, Mary Mower, Pat Keady and Margaret Livingston (seated), how evil people and their ways are robbing life of its beauty and the best method to destroy them.

JOAN HARDIN tonight starred as the Madwoman in her seventh Musgrave drama, four of which she played leading parts.

MACBETH

AN AMBITIOUS PROJECT for the Masquers in which Glenn Reznor, University graduate student and Missoula high school teacher, played the title role. Freshman Marjorie Lovberg, Delta Gamma, did a remarkable job of Lady Macbeth. Jack Shapiro, playing triple role of Banquo, Siward, and the portrayal of the porter. Pictured above at dress rehearsal is the scene in which Macbeth has seen Banquo's ghost at the banquet table. Players are from left to right, Tom Sherlock, Art Lundell, Sally Stamm, Marjorie Lovberg, and Glenn Reznor.

Original background music written by Monroe DeJarnette was the first time background music was used with a drama production on campus. A ten-piece orchestra played the 45-minute composition in its first public presentation during the play. Composer DeJarnette is a Theta Chi majoring in music. Another innovation on the technical side, a revolving stage, quickened the action of the play by making possible flexible and effective stage arrangements. Persons who appeared in the play are: Tutti Bach, Alice Ann Buis, Carol Murray, Dick Barsness, Art Lundell, Ohs Packwood, James White, Tom Sherlock, Allen Rose, John Pecanich, Tom Kilpatrick, Sally Stamm, Louis Elmure, Dale Wing, Donna Murray, Pat Koob, Dorothy Ross, Sandy Demmons, Bob Peters, and Dale Harvey.

HARVEY

BEST RECEIVED of all Masquer productions this year, the story of a man and his six-foot rabbit friend pleased everyone. One of the main reasons for such appreciation was Art Lundell's refreshing interpretation of Elwood P. Dowd. Lundell, a junior in the journalism school and president of Masquer, made his ninth appearance in a Masquer production. At right Elwood P. Dowd introduces Mrs. Ethel Chavener (Pat Fraher) to Harvey. Also acclaimed for her part as Dowd's sister was Pat Kolb, Delta Gamma freshman. In the play she was mainly concerned with the introduction of her daughter Myrtle Mae (Dorothy Ross) to the society set. Above is a scene at Chumley's Rest where the sanity of several persons is being questioned. Right to left: Paul Tschoeke (as Dr. Chumley), Pat Kolb (as Kate Louise Simmons), Tom Sherlock (as Judge Omar Goffney), and Dorothy Ross (as Myrtle Mae Simmons). Other players were Maryann Lushberg, Tutti Boch, Fred Carl, Tom Newtham, Virginia Gipple, and Dale Harvey.

LA BOHEME

THE ALL SCHOOL SHOW was a startling success—"a cultural landmark in MSU's history," as the critics termed it. Although the audience was relatively small, those who went were amazed at the capabilities of the directors and the students both in the orchestra and the cast. The biggest production ever put on by MSU students, it included a 24-voice chorus, 31 persons in the orchestra, 14 children in the children's chorus, and 8 principals, not to mention the brigade of backstage help, ushers, and business and publicity staff. The five directors: John Lester, music director; LeRoy Hinze, stage director; David Weiss, designer and technical director; Eugene Ankrle, conductor; and Lloyd Oakland, chorus director, selected the operatic score during spring quarter of 1951 in accordance with vocal and instrumental talent on campus.

JEANNE COUTURE AND ROBERT HOYEM

sang the lead parts of Mimi and Rudolph in the opera. Miss Couture soprano toured Montana with the Opera Workshop group singing excerpts of Carmen in '51 and excerpts of La Boheme in '52. A popular entertainer on campus, Miss Couture sang with dance bands, was a member of the Jubileers and sang solo parts in the Christmas presentation of the Messiah. She is a junior majoring in music and also a member of the a capella chorus. However, tenor, sang a small part in the Barber of Seville presented on campus two years ago. A junior in music, he is a member of Jubileers, a capella chorus and the men's music honorary, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. He sang solo parts in the Messiah and sang with a dance band.

JAMES COLE AND ANNA JANE CALDWELL

were Marcel and Musetta. Miss Caldwell, a sophomore music major performed with the Opera Workshop and is a member of a capella and Mu Phi, women's music honorary. Cole sang leading parts in Carmen on the Workshop tour. President of the men's music honorary, he sings with the Jubileers, a capella and was a soloist in the Messiah program.

LANE JUSTUS AND VERNON JOHNSON

played Schaunard and Colline. Justus, a three-year member of the Opera Workshop, sang in the Barber of Seville and is a member of the Jubileers. Johnson, besides being prominent as drum major in the MSU band, is a member of the men's music honorary. Both Justus and Johnson are members of a capella and are majors in the music school.

PHOTOS BY HETTER

LA BOHEME IS THE STORY of four artists, living in the colorful Latin quarter of 1840 Paris. The poet, Rudolph, falls in love with the beautiful but fragile Mimi, who loves him in return. The painter Marcel, in love with the flirtatious Musetta does not have an unrequited love. Musetta who really loves Marcel realizes that her beauty is her advantage and cannot spend her time with the penniless painter. As fortune makes them merry or sad, hungry or sheltered, they live their lives looking for the beautiful moments. In the end Mimi, the only person to find and give a bit of true happiness to her lover Rudolph, dies of the melody that made her so frail. Pictured from right to left in the gay second act is James Cole (Marcel), Lane Justus (Schaunard), Vernon Johnson (Colline), Jeanne Couture (Mimi) and Robert Hoyem (Rudolph).

COMMUNITY CONCERTS

ROBERT SHAW'S CHORALE (above), the first of the 1951-52 Community Concert series, appeared October 18 and 19. The 32-voice chorus sang an unusual program ranging from Beethoven to songs of the American musical theater. Edwin Steffe, American baritone, sang on November 29 and 30. His program included songs from many countries and the last section of the concert was devoted to unpublished American compositions. Yifrah Neamen, violinist, appeared February 14 and 15 and included in his selections Bartók's "Rumanian Dances" and the Mozart sonata in E-minor. Alec Templeton, pianist, the most popular artist, gave his concerts March 17 and 18. His program was divided between performances of standard composers and informal improvisations.

ANA MARIE'S SPANISH BALLET

A CAST OF 17 danced original Spanish dances and a ballet in the act, October 23. This ballet troupe was sponsored by the women's physical education department.

VIRGINIA CITY PLAYERS (two top pictures) presented the melodrama, "Rip Van Winkle," as it was produced in 1865, and the "Bole of Hay Variety Show" which featured dances and skits typical of a performance in the mid-nineteenth century. The troupe has received national recognition in Holiday and Theater Arts for their Nineteenth Century American comedy, melodrama and vaudeville. Bernard Tono, who played the leading role of Rip Van Winkle, has been with the company for three seasons.

PATRICIA KOOB (above left), representing the Delta Gammas, was awarded $30 as winner of the Spur-Bear Paw sponsored variety show, "Danny Lambros and His Talent Scouts." Second place went to Donald Mae, Sigma Nu, for a trumpet solo. He received $15. Margorie Luvberg, representing Delta Gamma, took third place and $5 with a reading. The Sigma Nu quartet (above right) were another group of the many competitors. Spurs and Bear Paws made about $80 for the show which was given to the Red Cross.

MSU BANDS

LARGEST OF THE FOUR campus bands is the Marching band (above) formed last quarter every year. They perform maneuvers at the half period of all home football games and usually make a trip to one out-of-town game besides marching in parades and rallies. Giving annual winter and spring concerts and concerts on tour is the job of the Symphonic band. When alumni or high school students visit the campus, this band entertains them too. The newest band on campus is the Varsity Chamber band. It is a balanced group of picked performers and functions as an experimental organization for future music educators. Because this band is small and competent, it plays numerous concerts out of town and often performs new band compositions. The ROTC band, formed during spring quarter, performs for various military parades and reviews on the campus. Many students belong to two or more of these bands. DIRECTOR JUSTIN GRAY (left) came to the University in 1946 with degrees from the University of Michigan and Eastern School of Music. He is well known as an educator and guest conductor throughout Montana, Idaho, and Washington. Many Montana bullfencers know him for his performances on the clarinet while on state recital tours. At present he is very active in the college Band Director's National Association.

DRUM MAJOR VERNON JOHNSON, flanked by twirlers Margaret Tange (left) and Maxine Hightower (right), both Alpha Phi. Johnson, a senior in music, is a member of the men's music honorary, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and a member of the a capella choir. Cast in one of the leading roles in La Boheme, he sang the bass part of the philosopher, Colline. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity.

TWIRLERS

NEITHER SLEET NOR SNOW could stop these eight buckskinned beauties who so delightfully entertained during football half times and in parades. Their marching routines, acrobatics, and twirling to the difficult waltzes and modern jazz numbers were only a few of the accomplishments displayed by these handworking troupers. They are: Back, Georgiana Caperton, freshman Kappa Alpha Theta; Gloria Twidle, freshman Kappa Kappa Gamma; Rowena Day, freshman Alpha Phi; Muriel Griffin, freshman Delta Gamma. Second row, Eileen Park, junior Kappa Alpha Theta; Martha Smithers, sophomore Alpha Phi. Kneeling front, Maxine Hightower, sophomore Alpha Phi; Patricia Davidson, senior Alpha Phi; and Margaret Tange, sophomore Alpha Phi.

ORCHESTRA

PLAYING THREE FORMAL CONCERTS, the Christmas music with the University singing groups, the Holy Week concert and at McFarland's inauguration, the University Symphony orchestra provided some of the most cultured entertainment on campus. They also made tape recordings for broadcasts to be given throughout the state on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. A select group under the name of the Symphonettes gave several concerts. Parts of these concerts were conducted by Madison Vick and George Bowring, both graduate students in music. One of the hardest working groups on campus was the opera orchestra, made up of thirty-one persons. They made a trip to Bozeman and Butte to accompany the principals who sang excerpts of the opera. A nucleus of the orchestra furnished original background music written by music major Monroe DeJarnette, for the Masquer play, "Macbeth." Members of the orchestra are: Violins, M. Vick, V. Balkovetz, E. Chiesler, B. Rumph, G. Bowring, B. Walker, M. MacKinnon, S. Critelli, B. Huebl, E. Tetrault, D. Guilio, L. Mortinec, K. Cardinale, M. Schimpf; violas, P. Oberg, L. Oakland; cellos, C. Critelli, G. Lewis, J. Correll, R. Taylor; basses, R. Hoffman, J. Maynard, H. Cornish; piano and percussion, J. Jones, B. Swingley, C. Stone; flutes, K. Walker, D. Line, piccolo, J. Harden, oboes, J. Marvin, V. Harkins; clarinets, M. DeJarnette, I. Brusletten; bass clarinet, R. Eicholz; bassoons, D. Hardisty, J. McCrea; horns, D. Isbell, M. Holden, P. Abel, R. Bacon, J. Kuster; trumpets, D. Kuster, S. Davis, R. Grotte, F. Nelson; trombones, F. Nelson, J. McFarland; timpani, D. Needham, K. Arnold. CONDUCTOR EUGENE ANDRIE (left) besides conducting the orchestras through their busy year, toured throughout several states as adjudicator and was solo violinist in the Billings Symphony orchestra where he performed the Beethoven violin concerto. Andrie has received degrees from Western Michigan College of Education and the University of Washington.

A CAPELLA

A CAPELLA CHOIR MEMBERS, specially selected from the student body for their vocal talent, made recordings for the CBS and NBC radio networks. At Christmas they presented the Christmas portion of Handel's Messiah and other Christmas songs with the University chorus. Soloists for the Messiah were Jeanne Couture, Anna Jane Caldwell, Patricia Frober, Dolore Galskey, Robert Hovens, Lane Justus and James Cole. For the Easter program, a capella song the "Seven Last Words" by Schutz and choral numbers by Bach and Gustav Holst. Marjane Bredenstine, Patricia Frober, Marlene McKinley, Felle Nelson, Gordon Travis and Wayne Falden were soloists. Lloyd Oakland, assistant professor in the music department, directed the choir and University chorus as well as the Jubilees and women's sextet. A newcomer to the music school, Oakland had been a professor of music education for the past fourteen years at Cornell college in Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

WOMEN'S SEXTET

SIX TALENTED FRESHMEN and their accompanist publicized the University and created good will by singing at civic organization meetings both in and out of Missoula. They are: accompanist Pat Strope, Charlotte Gaines, Donna Nurney, Marjorie Bridenstine, Marjorie Lovberg, Marlene McKinley and Billie Ann McFarland.

JUBILEERS

CHOSEN BY AUDITION, this all school singing group frequently toured various parts of the state during the school year. Their purpose was to create good will toward MSU and to attract future students. They are: Berta Huebl, Gary Reese, Peggy Lawson, Charles Stone, Jeanne Couture, Robert Hoyem, Barbara Dickson, James Cole, Patricia Fraher, Wayne Folden, Idabob Herring, Lane Justus, and Jane Guthke. Front: accompanist Gilbert Leibinger and conductor Lloyd Oakland.

THE ANNUAL Whitefish trip, the big function of the Ski Club, brought laurels to Cliff Wordal, Normo Bell and Lew Penwell, to mention only a few of the outstanding members of this group supported by word.

Week-end excursions to ski runs, broken legs, and sun burns comprised the more usual activities of its members, whose enthusiasm for the sport gives much of the campus "ski-fever" comes winter.

Under the tutelage of Coach Ted Shipkey, the 1951 Grizzly football team began their inaugural year in the Skyline Eight Conference by tackling a tough schedule of five games in their own new league coupled with their opponents in the Pacific Coast Conference. Late in September, the "Copper, Silver, and Gold" traveled to Seattle to face the season's first foes in the form of the huge Washington Huskies. Experience and depth outweighed Montana fight as the Huskies scored touchdown after touchdown to roll up a 58 to 7 count by the final gun.

Hope rose the following week under the Dornblaser Field lights as the Grizzlies played and won their first Skyline Eight game from New Mexico 25 to 7. These hopes were somewhat shaken after successive losses to Denver, 55 to 0, and annual Homecoming opponent Idaho, 12 to 9. Montana State College Bobcats were next on the agenda. Playing at Bozeman in near blizzard weather, the Grizzlies warmed up an otherwise cold season by beating their intra-state rivals 38-0.

Following a close loss to Utah State at Logan, the Grizzlies came home to face the powerful Wyoming Cowpokes. Although outgunning and generally outplaying the Cowpokes, the breaks were against the Grizzlies and they ended up on short end at a 34 to 7 score.

FOOTBALL

Colorado A and M acted as host for Montana's next game, but they treated their guests none too politely as the score indicated; Montana 6, Colorado A and M 34. The Grizzlies were determined to end the upset of the year as they left for Pullman to play Washington State in their last game, but determination wasn't enough as the Cougars killed the score to 47-10.

Lefty Burns was chosen by his teammates as the Most Valuable Player, and by his all-around play rightly earned the distinction. The "Left-handed" received places on All American Honorable Mention and First Team All Skyline Eight.

BASKETBALL

COMBINING A SMALL nucleus of lettermen surrounded by several freshman and inexperienced players, Coach George Dahlberg drilled his squad in the "fast break" for their entrance into what is probably one of the best conferences in the nation, the Skyline Eight. In pre-conference series with Idaho and Washington State, the short Grizzlies showed a fighting brand of ball while losing several games by close margins in overtimes. Picked by many sportswriters to end the season near the cellar of the Skyline Eight, the Grizzlies began their conference season making the prediction true, but suddenly "Jiggs's" boys started their climb toward the top. All Grizzly fans were especially proud of their team's fighting spirit as the Montana five continually played some of the nation's basketball giants to a standstill. By season's end, Coach Dahlberg had expanded his small nucleus into a well rounded winning team.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

SERVING AS A SOURCE of talent for Grizzly basketball squads, the Cubs are the united strength of young aspirants which form the backbone of teams hence. While compiling a season's record of 14 wins against one loss, including a home and home series with the State Champions from Kalispell, the Freshmen showed that they had the necessary quality to advance them to future varsity fives.

Sitting: Captains Mike Fleming, John Badgley, and Joe Luckman.

TRACK

PRIMED FOR THE START of the '52 track season with the preceding year's team nearly intact, the Grizzly thrashers anticipated a strong year in the Skyline Eight. However, the setbacks of a coach came to Harry Adams with the first meet at Brigham Young University as injuries sidelined top dash man Luckman. Even without Joe, the Grizzlies tallied enough first places to earn a 69 to 62 victory.

The next to fall behind the fast moving Grizzlies were Montana State, Eastern Montana College of Education, Western Montana College of Education, and Rocky Mountain, whose combined total was nearly doubled by the University, 107-58, in the State meet in Missoula.

The state of Utah provided the next Silvertip opponents as the following two weeks both Utah State and Utah were on the agenda. Utah State went down to defeat at Logan, 76 to 55, mounded by the many Grizzly first places. Missoula was the scene of the University of Utah-Montana conflict on May 10, as the two leaders of the western division met. Holding a small lead before the last event, the Grizzlies lost a close mile relay and therefore the meet by two points.

PICKED BY MANY as "the team to beat" in the Skyline Eight, Grizzly diamond enthusiasts looked forward to the 1962 season with high hopes. The Silvertips lived up to this reputation as on their first road trip they gained an even split and then went on to lead the division up to the season's last day.

Utah and Brigham Young then made their bid as they took turns in beating hapless Utah State to make the western division championship a three-way tie and necessitating a playoff series. By losing the first playoff game, the Grizzlies were eliminated from any further consideration for the conference crown.

Finishing the season with 14 wins and 7 losses, the Grizzlies beat Gonzaga five out of six games plus walloping the Battle All Stars and Kalispell.

GOLF

PROVING TO BE ONE of the most consistent winners in the 1951-52 sports season, the golf team turned in a creditable record against stiff Skyline competition. Although beaten in their first match, the Grizzly golfers then proceeded to produce an enviable percentage of conquests.

The Skyline tournament held at Denver saw the Montana team behind just one stroke at the halfway mark while playing on a rain drenched course only to fall to fourth place at the finish.

HAVING THE DISADVANTAGE of being the northernmost school in the Skyline Eight Conference and therefore not having the necessary pre-season practice, the tennis squad started the season with the count already love-30 against them.

Even against such handicaps, the team jilted "heads up" tennis to win a fair share of their matches. Led by high point man, Bob Sparks, to the Skyline Eight march, the Grizzlies ended the season by placing in the second division.

SWIMMING

COACHED BY FRED ERDHAUS, captained by Bob Cooney, and led in scoring by George Harpole, the Montana swimming team started the season with eagerness and determination. Although engaging in Skyline Eight competition, the team also twice contested against the Eastern Washington Cheneys. The seasons end found the Grizzlies exactly even with 3 wins and 3 losses.

RIFLERY

SHOOTING AGAINST NATIONWIDE competing, the University rifle squad scored a near bullseye as they collected 82 wins compared with 8 losses and a tie with the United States Military Academy at West Point. The team also finished high in the national tournament to round out a successful year.

INTRAMURALS

EMPLOYING A SYSTEM OF INTEREST to all students, George Cross directs a type of intramural program which entices strong team competition. In this system the different fields are divided into the major sports of touchball, basketball and softball, each winner receiving 500 points and into the minor sports of volleyball, bowling, skiing, swimming, golf, track and tennis, each winner receiving either 200 or 300 points depending on the sport. Thus the team having the largest total at the year's end is crowned the intramural champion.

THE INTRAMURAL CHAMPION OF 1951-52 was Phi Delta Theta. By becoming the first team to sweep the three major sports since 1941, the Phi Delts easily won the trophy by 220 points.

The Sigma Chis and the Sigma Nus offered strong opposition throughout the year. The Sigma Chis lost a hard fought touchball championship on a last second pass and also lost the basketball play-off to the Phi Delts. The Sigma Nus battled to the final game in softball before succumbing to Phi Delta Theta.

WAA OFFICERS for the year were P. Evans, vice president; B. Handford, secretary; J. Shreeve, treasurer; and N. Bell, president.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION board, the governing body for women's sports on the campus, is composed of representatives from each living group, town girls sports managers, and officers. Active membership is extended to those women who have participated in at least one intramural sport the required time. Besides sponsoring the intramural sports, WAA sponsored a Santa party, barn dance and gym jam fall quarter and the installation banquet spring quarter. Deanne Parmeter is the group's adviser.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

THE UNIVERSITY'S first women's intercollegiate ski team won the Northwest's Women's Intercollegiate Ski meet at Whitefish. Lewis and Clark, WSC, WU, and U of Vancouver also participated. Team members were N. Bell; P. Kind; R. Long; D. Parmeter, coach; M. Swearingen, and M. Her. N. Hubber also made the team but broke her leg before the meet.

MSC DEFEATED the university swimmers this year in a close meet. Form swimming was added to the speed swimming for the first time. Team members were: B. Sutliff, M. Calvert, G. Gholson, and G. Davis.

FALL QUARTER new M members were tapped at the Santa party and M pins were awarded. W. Ellis and P. Griffith receive M from president R. Turnquist while other M members look on.

THE LAST ACTIVITY of the year is the Installation banquet at which awards for the year are presented and new officers are installed into WAA. Norma Bell introduces the newly elected officers, R. Turnquist, vice president; B. Hanford, president; Peg Taffe, treasurer, and K. Kinnison, secretary. Sitting is W. Rosean, new M club president.

INTERFRATERNITY AND PANHELLENIC

IFC, COMPOSED OF THE presidents of each recognized social fraternity, is an example of Grizzly student government. Interfraternity council acted as a legislative and advisory body to aid each group with its administrative problems. Guiding the IFC through the trials and tribulations of policy decisions was the job of President George Ostrum, TX, Vice President Duane Smith, SPE, and Secretary Larry Hill, PSK. Main policy decisions included rushing procedures, public relations, scholarship, intramural activities, pledge training and social standards. President Ostrum was also elected vice president of the Western Regional IFC last fall.

PANHEL, WHICH IS composed of two representatives from each sorority on campus, met each Wednesday evening to discuss problems of rushing, social considerations, and scholarship. Fall quarter workshops were held to give further opportunity for members to meet and discuss these problems. Panhellenic was the working group behind many of the teas and social functions during the year. This sorority governing body was headed by President Juanita Kugler, DG, Vice President Barbara Blakeslee, AP, Secretary Reine Walston, AXO and Treasurer Peggy Griffith, SK.

ADDING their smiles to the Grizzly scene the girls of Alpha Chi Omega kept themselves so busy they decided college life would be perfect if there were no classes.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE Alpha Chi Omega took the women's intramural championship in basketball and third place in volleyball, adding two more trophies to their mantle.

JEWEL "PERSONALITY" BECK, Alpha Chi president for fall and winter quarters, did herself and the house proud as a member of Mentor Board, a Kappa Tau convocations committee, and a Theta Sig as well as being associate editor of the Kaimos. Joy East took over the house presidency as well as the Kaimos business manager's position spring quarter, and worked as a North Hall counselor during the year.

CLAD IN LEVIS the Alpha Chi's hayride during fall quarter highlighted activities, and everyone went Bohemian for a party of the same name during the winter. Donna Clugger, Stroud and LaQuita Lahn sang and danced respectively for many a function, keeping the Alpha Chi tradition of terrific, unusual entertainment. The big affair of the year came with the formal dinner dance at the Governor's room at the Florence.

SPURS RECRUITED LaQuita Lahn and Gerry Holland at their tapping and AWS appointed Barbara Schunk to the Miss Minnesota committee. Phi Chi Theta claimed two A Chi O's in Roine Wolston and Clara Sexton, Roine serving in the office of treasurer and as Panhellenic secretary. Clara held AWS in check as proxy for '51-'52. Jerry Holland served the sophomore class as treasurer and as one of the happier members of Gripe Board.

WITH HEARTS AS BIG AS THE OVAL these gals sold Easter lilies for the Cerebral Palsy Foundation, worked on a project for underprivileged children, and gave a Christmas party for the alum's children.

THE BLUE house on University was blue on the outside only, as a happier group would be hard to find. The atmosphere at the A Chi O house is ideal.

ALPHA PHI'S made good use of swimming suits in front of the house and on the top-side sundock complete with studying, bridge, gossiping, and lounging.

DANCING AT THE ROMANTIC "Halls of Ivy" had Alpha Phi's and their dates spent a wondrous evening in the Empire room of the Palace Hotel at their spring formal dinner dance affair. Fall and winter functions were held in elegantly decorated rooms at the house.

HONORS WERE FREQUENT visitors to the Alpha Phi's beginning with their winning the Kappa Kappa Gamma award and following this were honors in bowling, swimming, skiing and ping pong.

ACTIVITY WISE three A Phi's belonged to Mortar Board. Namely Evelyn Davis, Patsy Patterson and Nina Paul. Sports claimed four themselves in Dolores Johnson, Peggy Tette, Phyllis Trewick and Alice Ann Buis. The president of AWS, Mollie Her, and Jamie Brennan, president of Perhellenic, are also in their midst. Pat Danielson, treasurer for the senior class, also held the title of Daisy Mae for MSU. Another class office, that of sophomore secretary, came into the hands of Cathy Doherty.

PRESIDENT JANICE LUDWIG had much to do besides those duties regularly assigned to a prexy in trying to persuade the Sig Ep's to stay off their roof, relinquish their binoculars, etc., while her sorority sisters sunbathed. (Ed. Note: She didn't succeed!!!)

SATURDAY MORNING means rushing through breakfast to get at the many things to be done, and brother (pardon, sister) does this coffee taste good?

MANY friendly, enthusiastic, and efficient campus leaders are found residing in this brick house on University every year.

EVERYTHING AND ANYTHING was included in the social functions of the Tri-Delts ranging from a winter quarter dinner dance at the Florence, to a ski party, to a sizzling barbecue in the spring.

SPOTLIGHT ON ACTIVITIES showed Norma Bell as WAA president and Pat Evans, vice-president. Caryl Wickes served as junior class president while Dona Skates Sherbeck held the position of ASMSU secretary. Betty Smith filled the job of Kaimin associate editor and Panhellenic treasurer was Mara McKinnon. Annette Wylie took her share of campus responsibilities by heading the counselor-counselee system and being co-chairman of the Red Cross blood drive. Spurs hailed Ilen Egger, Geraldine St. Onge and Marianne Carroll as members. Lois Joan Chauvin joined the ranks of Mortar Board and Alpha Lambda Delta claimed Ilen Egger, Jerry St. Onge and Donna Larson.

ON THE BEAM was Pat Lovely who was elected "Spur of the Moment." Helping to lead the rooting section were yell leaders Janice Brownlee and Frances Pyle, Franny holding down the yell queen's position. As a group the Tri-Delts will be long remembered for their music in the spring song fest of 1951 where they walked away with first place.

DELTA GAMMA

FIVE DG's were selected as Miss Montana candidates for '52. Left to right they are Virginia Harkins, Bev Turpening, Marj Lovberg, Bev Anderson and Pat Strope.

SAILING THE SOCIAL SEAS were the DG's in their round of parties, dinners and dances with Gwen Flightner at the helm. The Rag party, which is a part of the DG blind project, the "Snoball," and an International Tea were given.

PROMINENT PERSONALITIES WERE NUMEROUS. Audrey Olson Thorsrud found time to be ASMSU vice president and president of Theta Sigma Phi. Added to this was her chairmanship of social committee. Juanita Klugler handled the gavel in Parliet, was a delegate to Central Board, a member of Mastar Board, and chairman of Publications Board. Spur attire was worn by Myrna Dulven and Anne Fowler, and Muriel Griffin strutted in her scanty Indian majorette outfit. Senior class secretary was Bev Anderson; freshman treasurer was Carlene Dragstedt, and Judy Larkin doubled as junior treasurer and president of Homearts Club.

SWEETHEART OF SIGMA CHI was DG Doris Mudd. The presidency of Phi Chi Theta went two years in a row to DG's, first Ruth Johnson, then LaRene Kisting. Kappa Tau found Bev Anderson in its midst and Matrix Table honored Anne Fowler as outstanding sophomore. Cresta Stucky was president of North Hall, Westminster and SCA secretary.

ON THE DRAMATIC BALL were Masquers Mary Jo Peterson, Marjorie Lovberg and Pat Koob. Pat had leads in "Madwomen of Chaillot" and "Harvey" besides taking first place in the Variety Show. Marj played Lady MacBeth in "MacBeth," naturally had a lead in "Madwomen" took third place in the Variety show, and second place in acting, fourth in oral interp, at the regional speech tournament in Oregon.

BEAUTIES AND BRAINS, the DG's established a record in scholarship with a 1.8 average from fall quarter. Sports-minded also, they took second place in swimming.

KAPPA

RIDING THE MERRY-GO-ROUND of social sparkle and activities were the Theta's under the guidance of President Billie Johnston. A big Christmas party, complete with Santa Claus and presents, a smorgasbord party, a dinner-dance at the Florence and several impromptu get-togethers with the Sigma Chi's and Sigma Nu's were but a few of the many functions. The Sigma Chi fire drill party, and the riddle of "who put the pony in Mrs. Pehrom's parlor?" will long be remembered.

A WELL-ROUNDED HOUSE is the envy of all seniors and the Theta house was the epitome of such. Mortar Board claimed seniors Jackie Perry, Annie Beatty and Irene Stritch. Matrix Table honored Irene as "Outstanding Senior Girl" and Mary Joan Tascher (better known as "Blondie Mary" since the Red Cross drive) as "Outstanding Junior Girl." Spurs tapped three K.A.T.'s, Vivian Stetten, Pat Schwarz and Marilyn Foster, with Marilyn serving as president of the group and also as secretary of AWS. Marjorie Rutherford became the Sig Ep "Queen of Hearts" and Joyce Frigaard, Chief Counsel of R.O.T.C. Two secretaries were Dorinda Persons for ASMSU, and Bev Henne for the junior class. Activity girl Eileen Polk successfully maneuvered the Miss Montana program, served as president of Aquamaids, and served on Pub Board.

ALPHA THETA

FAR FROM CAMPUS, but right in the middle of the social whirl, the Theta house resounded with activity all year, and more than one Kari found this roof over her head.

THETA IMAGINATION brought to the halls of their Gerald home a variety of activities and animals, but quieter moments were spent on the sundeck behind the house, looking at Sigma Nu.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

REAL SOPHISTICATED LADIES, these Kappas as displayed by the lineup at the Yukon Dais rush party (top) and two of their first place winning Mardi Gras float.

TENDENCY FOR THINGS SOCIAL started with the fall quarter mixer skating party for the Kappas. To add to their official and unofficial social functions, the KKG unexpectedly visited the Phi Sig for lunch one day. Muttering to themselves about some fraternity boys entering their kitchen with empty trays and leaving with great size portions of their lunch, the girls marched in mass invaded, and soon established a beach head, conquering all Phi Sig food at hand. Other outstanding parties featured dinners and dances.

VERSATILE IN ACTIVITIES Mentor Board secured two Kappas, Spud Golen and President Peggy Clapp. Lottie Sheridan and Judy McCutlough were among ALD members. Holding class and organization offices were: Marlene Carrig, vice president of AWS, Dorothy Reeves, vice president of the sophomore class, and Jo Ann Grundstrom, assistant chairman of Miss Montana Pageant. Five had membership in Spenser Corps, Barbara Hill, Mary Ken Rotherman, Marcia Oechsl, Cecelia Twilde and Jeanne Thomas. Wearing the Spur emblem were Lottie Sheridan, Judy McCutlough, Miss Ellen Styles and Joan Kimball. Two varsity cheerleaders Jeanne Thomas and Gail MacDonald were also on the Kappa list of "most active."

IN THE LIMELIGHT Diana Connors was Phi Sig Moonlight Girl, Bobbie Hansen, Miss Photogenic, and Beth O'Hanlon, Mardi Gras Queen. Peg Clapp was named outstanding senior girl at Matix Table. Kappa Kappa Gamma was rated top society in the Red Cross blood donations and came out on top in women's intra-mural athletics.

WONDER if the Kappas can use their golden keys to open the door of their Grand home after lockout?

SIGMA KAPPA

SIMILAR TO THEIR STATELY, sophisticated house occasionally the majority of the time their home was in contrast to the gaiety, laughter and music which could be found inside.

WITH EVERY GIRL IN THE HOUSE maintaining 4.5 average, the Sigma Kappa's still found time for water fights with the SAE's and other miscellaneous mischief. Formals and flowers were in order for the winter ball, "Dancing in the Dark," held at the Florence. A barbeque-dance topped spring quarter activities at the Southern mansion on University and Grand, and again the SAE's were "guests" for the Easter party held appropriately at Easter. The SPE's and SK's battled away a Saturday on the softball diamond, and gave excuse for another party.

WEARERS OF THE SPUR emblem were Jane Valentine, Jane Nelson and Mickey Mannen. Reba Turnquist, president of Women's "M" club, played an active part in WAA as vice president, and Mickey Mannen held the publicity chairmanship of the Miss Montana coronation ball. Seen frequently in the AWS office was Jane Nelson, their vice president. The important position of chairman of store board fell into the capable hands of Joan Arnold. Roxana Warren worked, wrote, fought, directed and generally maintained her calm composure as president of Radio Guild, doing an excellent job on MSU's radio drama.

ACTIVITY MINDED Patty Walker guided the Sigma Kappa's through a happy year as president and worked with North Hall as a junior sponsor. As we go to press, these gals just won their fourth straight softball game, complete with noise parades after each.

SIGMA KAPPAS, when not worrying about bluebooks and tests, turned their house into a place of continuous fun time.

"THE GIRL who wear the emblem of the Lazy MK ranch" as associate Murphy tells Pat Walker, "they'd be as happy at a dude ranch as at the Coronation Ball. Versatile and popular, the SK's are hard to beat."

FALL QUARTER the ATO's moved into their new house across the street from the campus, making them the closest of the fifteen.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

BRINGING BACK THE good ol' days the ATO Prohibition Daze party featured the popular Charleston for entertainment. A formal dinner-dance at the Florence, several firesides at the house and the boating and dancing party at Flathead Lake rounded out a very successful year of activities.

ROLLING ALONG with their share of wheels on campus the ATO's didn't put on the brakes when confronted with campus responsibilities. Felle Nelson was Senior delegate to Central Board and a member of Silent Sentinel. Dick Remington and Duane McCurdy were elected to Kappa Tau and top skier Lew Penwell belongs to the brotherhood. Musically inclined there was a strong representation in the band and orchestra and Sinfonia. ATO had members in Alpha Kappa Psi, Alpha Theta Phi, Kappa Psi, Forestry Club, Oro y Plata, Scabbard and Blade and Pershing Rifles to mention a few.

WINNING COMBINATIONS in intramural competition were Alpha Taus who gained a trophy by winning the bowling championship. High scholastically, they topped the scholarship list. Winter quarter and junked Hell Week, replacing it with Help Week. Their unusual contribution won them first place in the song fest, and they ranked second in campus groups for contributions in the Red Cross blood drive.

PHI DELTS AND THEIR DATES started off the fall social season with their annual Masquerade Ball, a gala affair held at the Veterans Housing. The same social spirit prevailed throughout the year with their Installation Ball, featuring Henry Busse's orchestra, and their spring house party at Flathead Lake.

THE KNIGHTS OF THE SWORD AND SHIELD are commonly referred to as the "House of Athletes," and this is largely the case. "Lefty" Byrne received the title of "Outstanding Athlete of the Year," earning letters in football, basketball and baseball. This year's track co-captains are John Badgley and Joe Luckman, who both wear the sword and shield. Gene Carlson and Jim Martin led the Grizzly baseball team into a successful year as co-captains. Well on their way to the intramural trophy are the Phi Deltis, with three major wins in touchball, basketball and swimming.

NOT ONLY ATHLETES reside at 500 University, however. Eugene Taitball took over the selection committee for Miss Montana. Don Stanaway served as president of Alpha Kappa Psi, and Bill Donnelly received a scholarship from the Banker's Life of Montana for being the outstanding business administration student. Donnelly and Bill Jameson made the ranks of Kappa Tau, and the Phi Deltis boast three Bear Paws. George Bercheullet, Jim Larcum and Durwood Johnson. Jerry Murphy served as associate editor of the Sentinel and Pat Graham held the Kappa business manager's post. President of this outstanding group is Mel Ingram.

THE MOST IDEAL MALE location on campus is 1011 Gerold, being literally surrounded by sorority houses.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

CANTERBURY CLUB President John Bennett and one other loyal Phi Sig stopped long enough from their Aber Day cleanup to pose for the Sentinel photographers.

WITH BANNERS FLYING over another successful year, members of Phi Sigma Kappa proudly looked back over party times of the past. Outstanding in their memories are the unforgettable "Carnation Bull" with the crowning of their "Moonlight Bull" and the spring picnic.

KEGS OF COFFEE were downed at the famous Coffee Don winter function, providing another excuse for a last weekend. Intoxication from all the coffee resulted in attempted calls to Moscow and Washington, D. C., for chats with Stalin and Truman . . . respectively.

HARD MAN TO BEAT, Phi Sig Bob Smith brought many honors to 1944 Gerald. Bob was Senior class president and also squared off as chairman of Gripe Board. Counting prizes for the Miss Montana pageant, Bob took over as business manager. As if this was not enough he was past house president on IFC and was chosen for Student Sentinel. Due mainly to his efforts, the Student Union Coke Store is being remodelled. Following in Bob's footsteps as house president and also president of the senior class, is Tim Sherlock.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

A QUIET, COOL, restful spot to pass away a sultry afternoon is the SAE manor . . . a loud, hot, madhouse to pass away a happy evening is the SAE manor.

"THE HOUSE OF GREAT EXTREMES"

... definitely not considered a stereotyped group, many SAE's can be found in the library while the rest of the brothers cavort at one of the famous basement parties.

ALMOST ANY REASON proved cause for Sigma Alpha Epsilon to throw a party this year. Fall quarter week ends were spent in Butte, winter quarter in Whitefish, and spring in Elmer. The Florence's Governor's Room was the spot of two traditional dress shirt affairs and Fort Missoula found SAE's in house for the fall week. Various firesides and parties were held in the house or in other appropriate spots at most every conceivable opportunity.

GRIZZLY ATHLETICS would not be the same if it were not for the many SAE contributions to the sporting scene, among whom are M Club members. Dick Anderson, Jack Cappelge, Perk Denmore, Pete Denmore, Don Gerlinger, Rich Gunderson, Dick Hansen, Dale Johnson, Rich Johnson, Jim Murray, Jack Sparks, Bob Cooney, Paul Wald and Hal Sherbeck. Also Don Erickson was president of Intramural Board, and Al Manual, senior extramural manager.

CAPTAINS, OUR CAPTAINS of many athletic endeavors found home at the corner of University and Gerald, namely, football, Paul Wald, basketball, Hal Sherbeck, tennis, Pete Denmore, and swimming, Bob Cooney. But the SAE house held not only athletes as Vern Johnson was Grizzly drum major, Jack Cappelge was a central board delegate, Sam Davis was band president, and Bear Paw tapped Dave Leuthold. Able Aber Day chairman was SAE Bub Cooney.

IN THE WINNER'S CIRCLE again this year, Sigma Chi's turned out another prize winning house homecoming decoration. Other honors won were runner-ups in both football and basketball, and the championship in volleyball. High on the social ladder, the French Party at the Steak House and the Sweetheart Ball at the Florentine Gardens were two of the more successful campus affairs, both being "musts" on many a gal's date calendar. Sigmabile outings, unofficial parties and miscellaneous get-togethers rounded out a successful year and gave the Sigs that "well done" feeling.

DONNING BEAR PAW SWEATERS were Marvin Reynolds, Winston Tustisen, Sentinel ad manager Peder Hoiness, Tom Tidyman, Doug Beighle, state DeMolay president Boyd Baldwin, George Stone and Duane Degen. The ASMSU president Doc Reynolds, and Dick Smith, associate editor of the Kaimin and editor of the Communicator both swore allegiance to Sigma Chi. Kappa Tau claimed Bill "Doc" Reynolds and state AAU lightweight boxing champ Bob Fraser. "Doc" and Bryce Breitenstein were topped by Silent Sentinel and Bob Graves is the newly elected M Club president. Doug "Dacon" Anderson held the honored position of Sentinel Business Manager, and Doug Kuster spent much of his time on Store Board.

SIGMA NU

NEWLY PAINTED and sparkling white the Sigma Nu walls resound with probably the loudest sounds on campus—anything from horns to trumpets.

THE FAMED Sigma Nu quartet has entertained at a multitude of university functions. Here they are singing at the Theta house.

THE LONG DRINK of water on back of the shirt shot in front is known as Ward Shanahan, the toast of the SN House.

A SOCIAL FRATERNITY, Sigma Nu had no trouble living up to its name this past year. Biggest affairs of the season were the Pig Dinner, the barndance, the quins party, and the Rock Creek get-together.

THE WHITE STAR BOYS rolled out many well-oiled wheels. Both president and vice-president of M. Club fell in SN hands through Bob Lomley and Mike Flemming. ASMAU business manager, Harvey Schlemmer, and chairman of Traditions Board, Don Latta, were other notable wheels. The president and Central Board directors of both the fraternity and sophomore classes were filled by Sigma Nu's Ken Duffy, Bob Newlin, Bill Burke, and Bill Jones. Only a sophomore, Bill is now Kappa's associate editor. SN also boasts two successive Kappa editors—Dick Wightman and Lewis Kern.

RIDING HIGH ON THE ACTIVITY BANDWAGON were the ten SN Bear Paws. Eight SN's made their way into Oregon. During the year they jacked through five prizes, the national ski trophy and also won the intramural ski trophy. SN president, Gil Caruso, led these boys to a bang-up year.

THIS QUIET look of the house at 140 University is rare, as more activity than any one house deserves generally goes on here.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

THINGS STARTED BOOMING fall quarter with the "Queen of Hearts" Ball at the Florence. From formal attire to the ridiculous seems appropriate for the outfits worn at one of the top campus functions, the "Bowery Ball," winter quarter. Besides the usual activity of keeping their binoculars warm gazing at sunbathing Alpha Phi's, more organized pursuits such as the Sig-Ep Sigma Kappa softball game and party fell unto their social calendar.

UPHOLDING A REPUTATION for sterling social performances, the SPE's opened spring quarter with an all day picnic-party at Lola Hot Springs that was tremendous.

ACTIVITY MINDED, Duane Smith completed his term of office as house president, president of Alpha Kappa Psi and IFC council, and Bill Demmons was tapped for eBar Paw. Demmons, Cliff Wordal and Dick Lucas represent the house well as top Grizzly skiers and Carl Rahnke proved himself invaluable as Grizzly baseball third baseman. Alpha Phi Omega had several active Sig-Eps in their organization, including their president, Dale Wing 1 who was also in a capella, Harold Boyd and Carl Westby. Gene Hoyt worked and perspired as Grizzly yell king, was an associate editor of the Sentinel, eminent potentate of Dregs and Kams, a member of Traditions Board, and on the Campus Grounds Committee. Art Lundell stole the show with his lead in "Harvey" and held the Masquer gavel for '51-'52. Lane Justus and Paul Rahnke were both Sinfonia members, and Lane sang with the Jubileers and had a lead in "La Boheme." Other Sig-Eps in the opera cast were Paul Rahnke, Leighton Stubbin and Carl Rahnke.

THE SUDDEN PASSING OF INSPIRING DICK WOOD, house president, was a deep felt blow to all of his brothers and to his many friends. Always active, Dick was a Kappa Tau, on IFC, past president of Math Club and Pi Mu Epsilon and manager of the Grizzly football team for three years. Dick was running for re-election on Store Board at the time of his death.

THE PAUSE for the Sentinel photographer was the only one taken in their After Day detail. The Sig-Eps are known for their hard working spirit and have the respect of the campus for same.

THE BUMS RUSH was given to the dates of hobo-cled Theta Chi's at their annual Hobo Arts Ball fall quarter. The scene changes and we find the boys going formal for their Red and White Ball, and winter quarter dinner dance. Spring quarter finds many Theta Chi's entertaining their dates at Laird's Lodge for their week-end Circle Bar X Roundup party on Seeley Lake. Definitely deserving mention is Porky Paulsen's wedding reception.

EVICTED TEMPORARILY from their home on University, pending the end of a remodeling program, the boys plan on living in style in their newly remodelled home come fall quarter of '52. Most of the Theta Chi's energy was expended on the promotion of their new home during the year.

BEARD WINNER of the Harvester's Ball was chief-push Don Cullen. Neal McCurdy took over the Bear Paws as Chief Grizzly. Outstanding Skyline Conference Swimmer was Theta Chi's own George Harpole. George Ostrum was undoubtedly one of the busiest men on campus. "Kissin' George" was president of Intrafraternity Council, president of the house, vice-president of the Western Regional Intrafraternity Council, and Lil Abner of Sodie Hawkins Day.

AT PRESENT the interior of this house is a shambles due to remodeling, and Theta Chi's eagerly await next fall for its completion.

THETA CHI's royally entertained their rushees during rush week. Here an Alpha Phi does an acrobatic act for the boys.

KNOW MONTANA

MONTANA'S FIRST PUBLIC SCHOOL

Historians record that the first public school was opened December 12, 1864 in Virginia City, when the first school district of the Montana territory was formed.

However, prior to that time, in the fall of 1863, a school had been established in Bannock by Lucia Darling. It was in the back room of her family's home. The enrollment was less than 30 pupils. Records do not reveal the method of financing the school but it is assumed that the school was supported by subscription and more than likely payments were made in gold dust, the most common medium of exchange of the period.

Only a few books were available for use in the class. These were the books carried west by the pioneers and treasured throughout their lives. Classes were held during morning hours only and not at all during the colder winter days.

In 1864 the Darling school was transferred to a log cabin on the banks of Grasshopper creek. The structure was built by Charles Sackett and Richard Penn. Later this building became the property of the United States and was used as a Senate committee room for the First Territorial assembly.

A "Common School System for the Territory of Montana" was established in an act signed by the territory's first governor, Sidney K. Edgerston, on Feb. 7, 1865.

Among the early-day teachers of the territory were Miss Darling, Professor T. J. Dunsdale, Oxford graduate and teacher at Virginia City who became first head of territory education; Mrs. Thomas Watson, William Mitchell, Katie M. Dunlap and Michael Roach.

Old familiar places!

The class room, the campus, the student union and many familiar meeting places will long remain in the memory of each MSU student.

Too, there's another landmark important to every student and alumni, (and we speak with pride for we've been reminded many times). "It's the big friendly store on the corner." In turn, we are pleased to know and talk with each student ever to attend Montana State University . . . we've joined in the activities . . . helped with their problems . . . and, we are "peacock proud" to be included as part of each student's university agenda!

FORTY YEARS OF FINE SERVICE TO MONTANA AND ITS PEOPLE

Since 1912, The Montana Power Company has been serving the Treasure State and its residents, providing ample supplies of power at the lowest possible rates.

In those 40 years, the cost of electricity has gone down steadily . . . and we have demonstrated time and again, that Montanans have all the power they need when they need it.

Our pledge for the future is to continue that type of service that will meet all your needs efficiently and reasonably . . . and to continue to be a good citizen wherever we serve.

THIS IS THE END?

OF THIS YEAR'S SENTINEL—YES! Of the KAPS and DREGS it is doubtful. Organized on the campus during the spring quarter by Gene Host, who patterned the organization after UCLA's famous KKKLPS and TROLLS. Their main purpose seems to be to stimulate school spirit and possibly let off steam after long winters of study and partying. Composed of persons who are supposed to be the campus cream-balls, the DREGS (males) and KAPS (females) have tapped some of the campus bigwigs as charter members. Full identification of the parties may be done by recovering any of the members that can be recognized. Last reports say that they are preparing for the annual Patter Canyon Snake Hunt and may be found in the hills around the Blackfoot Tavern. Lower-right: Gene Host.
